CAPTAIN W. H. FOWLE .- A communication appeared in vesterday's Gazette calling upon Captain W. H. Fewle to resign his seat as a member of the Legis'ature from this city That thought suggested itself to Captain Fowle as soon us he regained his reason, and would have been acted upon but for the advice of some of his friends. In order, however, that his present views may be stated correctly, we publish the following letter, received from him this morning, which, though not written for the Press, contains such infoliation that simple justice to him warrants its publication:

"RICHMOND, January 25, 1876. "Dest Sir: I am just in receipt of a letter from a friend, in which he says that a friend of mine, a prominent citizen, is talking of getting up a petition asking me to resign. 1 am string entirely under advice, and my friends here advise a different course. I have strong hopes of being able to make a final satisfactory settlement with the Montpelier. and until it is demonstrated that I cannot settle, I think the people might wait. I would have written a statement, but my counsel advises differently. I am in delly consultation with the trustees of the Moutpelier, and they are satisfied with matters as they progress. I have the sympathy of all here and they understanti the matter fully. think my people, who I know to begenerous might wait until this demonstrated that I am in default. I have suffered worse than death; spare me more pain, if possible. From the time I commenced to play-and I was not then quite sober-& remember nothing antil an instruct of self-preservation made me telegraph to Mr. Hunter. I had about $360 of my own money, and played with that. How I became involved and played the bonds I

"Yours truly, WILLIAM H. Forthe."
As stated in yesterday's Gazotte the Captain has succeeded, though he did not know it at the time be wrote the above letter, in making good the entire amount of the funds belonging to the Montpeller Association be so unfortunately lost.—Alexandrial Gezette

The New York Ecangelist says that the four pastors of the churches in Camden, Oneida county, have united in a card to the public, urging them to discountenance Sunday funerals. REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE. DESIRABLE UNIMPROVED SPRINGS DESIRABLE UNIMPROVED SPRINGS PROPERTY FOR SALE PRIVATELY.—I offer for sale privately a bold, free flowing SPRING which by qualitative analysis proves to be similar to the Healing Springs of Virgiola. The spring has been known to consist of medical virtue, curing diseases of inflammatory nature, for many years, but had not been until recently analyzed. There is connected with this spring about TEN ACRES OF LAND, beautifully located, about one hundred yards distant from Bell's Valley depot, on the Chesapeake and chio railroad, Rockbridge county, Va., distant one hundred and fifty miles from Richmond, Va., twelve miles from Rockbridge and Jor-Va., distant one hundred and fifty filles from Richmond, Va., twelve miles from Rockbridge and Jordan Alum Springs, and sixty filles from the celebrated White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

Owing to the location, being immediately on the Chesapeake and Chio railroad, the great thoroughfate from the ocean to the great West, situated in the most beautiful region in the State, this property can be made in a few years second to none other in the State of Virginia.

The old settlers of the county in which the other in the State of Virginia.

The old settlers of the county in which the springs are located can abundantly testify to the curative qualities of this water. Upon the same land is also a bold-flowing spring of freestone water.

The whole property has been recently enclosed with an excellent plank fence, and is so located with a fine grove of timber as to admit of any kind of improvement that may be desired.

The supply of water is abundant, being derived from a large, bold spring. The water is beautifully bright and chrystalline, and the ever-bursting bubbles of gas impart to it a peculiar, spatking appropries. pearance.
